

Home Learning TV returns today between 9am-1pm !

The Ministry of Education and TVNZ are bringing back Home Learning TV | Papa Kāinga TV. Featuring educational lessons and entertaining content suitable for children, the channel will offer learning support for families based at home from Wednesday 25 August.

Home Learning TV | Papa Kāinga TV will take over TVNZ's DUKE +1 daytime schedule from 9am-1pm.

Viewers will enjoy sessions from Suzy Cato, Karen O'Leary, amazing local teachers and more. At 1pm, DUKE's regular +1 programming will resume.

For specific schedule information visit tvnz.co.nz. Schedules available on the Learning from Home website and updated regularly.

The lessons have been developed and presented by teachers for Home Learning | Papa Kāinga TV will become part of a bank of resources that teachers, parents and learners will continue to have access to in future.

DUKE +1 is available on Freeview Channel 18 and Sky Channel 504. Over 400 lessons and pieces of content will also be available for catch-up viewing on TVNZ OnDemand via the Home Learning page for those who would like to pick and choose which lessons they watch: <https://www.tvnz.co.nz/shows/home-learning-tv>
